If the laboratory report on the analysis of saliva, urine, blood or other samples taken from livestock indicates the presence of forbidden drugs or medication, this shall be prima facie evidence such substance has been administered to the animal either internally or externally. It is presumed that the sample of urine, saliva, blood, or other substance tested by the laboratory to which it is sent is the one taken from the animal in question, its integrity is preserved and all procedures of said collection and preservation, transfer to the laboratory and analysis of the sample are correct and accurate and the report received from the laboratory pertains to the sample taken from the animal in question and correctly reflects the

The act of entering an animal in a fair or livestock show is the giving of verification junior exhibitor that he or she has read this IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics and understands the consequences of and penalties provided for actions prohibited by this code.  13. All exhibitors, parents, leaders and volunteers will conduct themselves in a positive and constructive manner. Anyone deemed to be in violation of any of the above may be asked to leave the show and can be barred from the grounds.

The Youth Livestock Exhibitor Code of Practice: I believe that my participation in the Junior Livestock Division should demonstrate my own ability, knowledge and skill as a feeder and fitter of livestock. I will do my own work and only accept advice and support from others. I will not use abusive or questionable techniques in the feeding, fitting and showing of my animals. I will not resort to fraudulent, illegal, or deceptive practices when fitting them for show. I also will not allow my parents, my leader/advisor, or any other adult to employ such practices. I will read and understand the rules of all livestock shows in which I am a participant. I ask that my parents and leader/advisor of my project animal not break the rules or make an exception on my behalf. I wish for my livestock project to be an example of how to accept what life has to offer -good and bad- and how to live with the outcomes. I realize I am responsible for: The proper care and treatment of my animals, the production of wholesome food, and the development of sound moral character in myself and others.

National Code of Show Ring Ethics (International Association of Fairs and Expositions): Exhibitors of animals at livestock shows shall at all times deport themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their conduct in this competitive environment shall always reflect the highest standards of honor and dignity to promote the advancement of agricultural education. This code applies to junior as well as open class exhibitors who compete in structured classes of competition. This code applies to all livestock offered in any event at a livestock show. In addition to the "IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics," fairs and livestock shows have rules and regulations which they impose on the local, county, provincial and national levels. All youth leaders working with junior exhibitors are under an affirmative responsibility to do more than avoid improper conduct or questionable acts. Their moral values must be so certain and positive that those younger and more pliable will be influenced by their fine example. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers, and absolutely responsible persons who violate the code of ethics will forfeit premiums, awards and auction proceeds and shall be prohibited from future exhibition in accordance with the rules adopted by the respective fairs and livestock shows. Exhibitors who violate this code of ethics demean the integrity of all livestock exhibitors and should be prohibited from competition at all livestock shows in the United States and Canada.

Should an exhibitor have a medical condition, they will be allowed to be assisted in the showring and during the auction by another Cochise County Fair exhibitor or member of the exhibitor's club/chapter. Should an exhibitor have a medical or family emergency, they will be automatically excused from being required to show and to sell their own livestock/small stock entries. In the event an exhibitor has another event that conflicts with the scheduled show and/or auction time, that exhibitor and their parent/legal guardian/responsible adult (if the exhibitor is a minor) shall file a written request with the Cochise County Fair Board as soon as the schedule conflict is discovered. The Cochise County Fair Board will have the final decision to either excuse the exhibitor's absence or to remove the exhibitor from showing and/or selling their entry(s) should the exhibitor not show up. Failure to follow the written request policy for scheduling conflicts will result in the exhibitor's entry(s) being automatically removed from the show and/or auction.

U. Drug Testing Procedures:

1. Champion Testing: Grand Champions, Reserve Champions, and Best Cochise County Bred & Fed Champions for beef, sheep, swine and meat goat divisions will be tested immediately following selection. If the animal has previously been selected and tested, it will be the Veterinarian/Tester's option to collect an additional sample.
2. The veterinarian/tester will be in charge of their own protocol for collecting and handling samples.
3. Procedure for selection of animals for random drug testing if performed: At the end of each class, a show official will draw a chip from a box. In the box are eight chips, four that are blank and four that are numbered one through four. If a blank chip is drawn, there will not be a drug test from that class. If a numbered chip is drawn, the animal which placed that number will be tested. Example, if chip number one is drawn, first place will be tested; two drawn, second place to be tested. The number of blank chips in the box may be increased or decreased as determined by the Show Veterinarian and Department Superintendent.
4. Drug testing will be performed immediately following the class. It will be the Veterinarian/Testers discretion if testing should be delayed to accommodate animals that will be returning for subsequent judging (breed champion, etc.).
5. Show management reserves the right to do testing on any animal entered in the Fair for any foreign substance including drugs, chemicals, or feed additives. The Official Show Veterinarian (or designated testing official) will collect urine and/or blood samples from animals selected for a drug test. It will be the Veterinarian/Tester's option if the sample is urine and/or blood.

6. Test samples must be free of any identifiable or unidentifiable foreign substance, including drugs, chemicals or feed additives, unless otherwise established as permissible by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) or Food and Drug Administration (FDA). There can be no presence of any performance-based drugs and/or derivatives thereof in test samples.
7. Animals that test positive for an unapproved foreign substance, including drugs, chemicals, feed additives, performance-based drugs or derivatives of any of these substances will be disqualified and ineligible for premiums or sale proceeds and the youth exhibitor will forfeit any awards. If an animal is disqualified, changes will not be made to the placings of other animals. The disqualified animal's carcass will be disposed of and the person owning the animal will be responsible for the expense for drug testing, including lab and collection fees.
8. The owner of the disqualified animal, their 4-H leader, FFA Advisor and his/her immediate family members may be reported to the North American Livestock Show and Rodeo Managers' Association Rule Infraction Database. If an individual is twice found to be in violation of these rules, the individual(s) responsible for the action causing disqualification will be barred from participating in any future Cochise County Fair Junior Livestock Shows.
9. If residues from foreign substances, including drugs, chemicals or feed additives, are found in the carcass tissue of an animal sold through the Cochise County Junior Livestock Auction, the Cochise County Fair Board will NOT be liable or responsible for the condition of the carcass or sale price of the animal.

V. Non-Sale Animal Packer Transportation:

A cleaning fee will be applied for all cages/pens that are not clean. Each pen will be charged $100 (large stock) and each cage will be charged $50 (small stock). Fees will be taken out of exhibitor's final sale check. Any exhibitor who violates these rules will be noted and not allowed to exhibit the following year.

*Any exhibitor aging out (SENIOR PROJECT) that fails to abide by this rule will be charged $500 (taken out of final sale check) and must submit a written essay to the fair board within 15 days explaining why the rule was broken before their final sale check will be issued. Failure to do so will result in sale check forfeit to the Cochise County Fair. ****

X. Thank You Notes:

Proceeds from the auction will not be released to the exhibitor until all thank you notes have been completed and reviewed. All exhibitors are required to send a personalized thank you note to their buyer(s), add-on contributors and buyers pool donors at the conclusion of the Cochise County Fair. Before the thank you notes are mailed out, they must be reviewed by a designated fair representative to confirm completion. To facilitate the review, a photograph of completed thank you notes must be sent to the Fair Manager. The deadline for exhibitors to complete their thank you notes is December 15 of the auction year unless prior approval from the Fair Board has been obtained. Failure to complete thank you notes by the deadline will result in funds being held until the next year for tax reporting purposes and will not be released until the thank you notes are verified as being completed. Unapproved tardiness of thank you notes is subject to disciplinary action by the Fair Board which may include being banned from participation at the Cochise County Fair in future years.

Y. Grievance Procedures:

A grievance addresses decisions or actions that can be reversed or changed. Before filing a grievance, a youth exhibitor must first try to resolve the issue informally by seeking the help of a 4-H leader, FFA Advisor, or Superintendent (hereinafter "Adult"). The youth exhibitor and Adult should decide if filing the grievance is the best way to approach the situation. To help decide whether to file a grievance, ask yourself this question: "Can whatever caused my dissatisfaction be reversed or undone?" The formal grievance best fits a situation where you want to appeal a decision. Please note: A grievance is different from a complaint. Making a complaint would be best if you want to report inappropriate behavior on the part of a Youth Exhibitor, 4-H leader, FFA Advisor, or superintendent. Any Youth Exhibitor, 4-H member, FFA member, leader, advisor, parent, or concerned citizen can make a complaint. If the situation occurs during the fair, try to resolve it with the project superintendent. If the situation occurs prior to the county fair, try to resolve it with the Fair Liaison, Tony Frazee, prior to filing a grievance.

Process for Filing a Grievance:

1. Youth Exhibitor/Adult completes the Grievance Form within 24 hours of an incident

(or ASAP if a physical or emotional safety issue) and submits it to the Cochise County Fair Board Junior Livestock Liaison.

2. The Cochise County Fair Board Junior Livestock Liaison notifies the Cochise County Fair Board and General Manager of the grievance.
3. The Cochise County Fair Board will form a committee to conduct an investigation and decide on a resolution. Depending on the circumstances surrounding the grievance, the appointed committee members will be decided by the Cochise County Fair Board and could include 4-H Leaders, FFA Advisors, Project Superintendents and any other person they see fit for the committee.
4. The resolution is written on the Grievance Form and is sent/given to the Youth Exhibitor/Adult and project superintendent. A copy of the Grievance Form is retained in the Cochise County Fair Office.
5. The decision of the committee will be final.

7. All small stock will be inspected before admitting, and no diseased, bug infested, or unsightly specimens will be admitted at the small stock superintendent's discretion; if bugs have been detected on bird(s) they may only be brought back into the barn for inspection once after being dusted, if bugs are still present on the animal(s) they will not be admitted into the barn for the remainder of the fair. The superintendent will remove diseased or unsightly animals from the small stock barn during the fair.
8. No nursing bunnies or cavies & un-feathered fowl, or those due to birth/hatch will be admitted into the barn.
9. Rabbits must be legibly tattooed in left ear, cavies must have a monel metal (a corrosion resistant alloy metal) ear tag (size 001 or 003) permanently placed in the left ear, pigeon/dove, poultry, waterfowl, and land fowl must be leg banded prior to their arrival at the fair. Any banding issues may be resolved with the superintendents. The tattoos, ear tags, leg bands, breed, and variety of the animals must match the county fair entry form or they will not be eligible for exhibition. All leg bands must be on the birds before check-in.

10. Make sure to know the sex of your animal when submitting your fair entry. Classes may not be changed after the official entry deadline on animals over the age of 6 months.
11. Breed Judging:
 - a. All poultry, pigeon, waterfowl, quail, turkeys, peafowl, and pheasants will be judged in their cages in the barn and not carried to the table. Notable comments will be made on the cage tag and the judge will be available for questions at the completion of judging.
 - b. All cavies and rabbits will be carried to the breed show tables for judging and will be shown by breed and variety. If you have multiple animals to be shown at the same time, you will need to have multiple people to assist you with your animals.
12. Rabbit meat pens will consist of three (3) rabbits, all the same breed and variety. Entries must be tattooed and tattoos recorded on entry form. Age limit will be a minimum of 6 weeks but not over 10 weeks. There is a weight limit of not over 5 pounds per rabbit. Rabbits are judged on uniformity of weight, conformation and meat producing qualities.
13. Poultry meat pens: Raise three (3) live chicks from day-old chicks to 6 to 10 weeks old. Entries must be leg banded and number recorded on entry form. Fryers must weigh 3.5 pounds to 5 pounds each, broilers 5 to 8 pounds each, and roasters 8 to 10 pounds each. Birds within the pen must weigh no less or more than the amount specified. If any bird is under or over minimum and maximum weights the pen will be disqualified. The heaviest weight bird determines the class. Birds are judged on uniformity of weight, conformation and meat producing qualities. Birds will be divided into subclasses upon check in.
14. Birds exhibited in a trio or pen may not be exhibited both individually and as a trio or pen. In the case of loss of an animal after entry the remainder may be shown individually. Notify the Superintendent as soon as possible.
15. Champion and Reserve hen or rooster cannot be taken from a trio or pen.
16. Exhibitors may enter up to two poultry meat pen classes, or two poultry trio classes, or one of each class for a maximum number of two entries.
17. A pet class will be provided for mixed breeds of all species. Mixed breeds are not eligible for champion classes or the auction.
18. Eggs: One-half dozen (6) eggs will constitute an entry. Entries with fewer or more than six eggs will be disqualified. Eggs must appear clean and should not be excessively dirty. All eggs in an entry must be of a single size group (small, medium, large). Eggs will be judged on uniformity of weight, shape, color, shell texture and interior quality by candling. One egg in each entry may be broken at the discretion of the judges.
19. Each species will have a junior and senior showmanship class with no minimum number of exhibitors.
20. No private treaty sales will be conducted until after the end of the small stock sale.

IX. SHOWMANSHIP AND ROUND ROBIN COMPETITION

A. General Showmanship Rules:

There will be four age divisions for showmanship: junior novice (8 to 13), junior (8 to 13), senior novice (14 & up), and senior (14 & up). Classes may be combined at the discretion of the superintendent. Novice is defined as any exhibitor never having shown a particular species at a county fair. Showmanship classes will be held for each species and the showmanship class will be separate from the conformation class. The top two novice winners in each division will proceed to the regular classes for the final competition at the judge's discretion.

Exhibitors participating in showmanship classes must exhibit their own animal and the animal must have been shown in a conformation class. The animal shown may be a breeding, market or prospect animal. Borrowing an animal from any other person will not be allowed. The only exception is when an exhibitor's only animal dies within two weeks of the fair. That exhibitor is eligible to replace it with another animal entered in the fair for the showmanship class and that exhibitor will be eligible to receive add-ons. The Cochise County Fair Office must be notified as soon as possible of this circumstance.

B. Showmanship Participation Requirements:

In order for exhibitors to sell their project(s) through the Junior Livestock Auctions, they must have participated in showmanship for each of the same species they wish to sell.

C. Round Robin Competition:

1. A Round Robin Competition for large stock and small stock will be held on Sunday of the fair. Champion showmanship winners from each species are eligible to participate in the Round Robin Competition. Exhibitors who may be eligible to compete in more than one species must select the species they wish to compete with in Round Robin. Immediately after each show, the Champion Showman (junior and senior) must notify the superintendent of the species whether or not he/she will participate in Round Robin. If the Champion does not want to participate, the superintendent will notify the Reserve Showman of his/her eligibility and will sign the exhibitor up for the class. Only champion or the reserve (if champion declines) showmanship winners are eligible.
2. The Round Robin Committee will select a panel of 2 -3 judges prior to the fair. All animal species will be set up after fair entries - animals may be brought in to help build classes as needed.
3. Exhibitors are prohibited from using any personal tack/show items such as brushes, steer combs, show halters (meat goat or cattle halters), etc. Exhibitors are only allowed to use the show equipment provided to them by the round robin superintendent.

Equipment that will be provided includes:

Small Stock – Nothing needed (In the event that turkey showing is incorporated, proper equipment will be provided at the discretion of the superintendent.)

Large Stock –

Hog: Show Whip

Cattle: Show Stick, Rope Halter

Meat Goat: Show Halter

Dairy Goat: Chain Show Halter

Pygmy Goat: Show Collar and Show Lead

Lamb: Nothing Needed (Rope halters will be placed for the animals' safety at the discretion of the Superintendent. The exhibitor will be docked placings by the judges if they use the halter during the show. The exhibitor is to act as if the halter is not there.)

4. When an exhibitor "goes in" for a species that means they will NOT be showing that species. If an exhibitor wins grand or reserve multiple species, then they get the choice of which species to go in for. Eligible species for Round Robin participation includes English Horse, Western Horse, dog, rabbit, cavy, waterfowl, landfowl, poultry, pigeon/dove, hog, beef, sheep, meat goat, dairy goat and pygmy goat.
5. There will be 10 species of animals shown: Small Stock – poultry, waterfowl, rabbit, cavy, turkey; Large Livestock – dairy goat, meat goat, sheep, beef, swine. Dairy Cattle, Pigeon/Dove, Pygmy Goat, Dog, Western Horse and English Horse champions will be eligible to participate in Round Robin, but these species will not be shown as part of the event.
6. All senior exhibitors will compete together followed by all junior exhibitors for each species. The competition will begin in the front of the small stock barn. The show order will be rabbit, cavy, poultry, waterfowl, turkey. Then, the exhibitors will move to the show ring for the large livestock portion beginning with swine, beef, sheep, market goat, and dairy goat.
7. Each exhibitor will be assigned a number for identification. Animals will be numbered ahead of time. Prior to the start of the contest, participants will draw a number to select the number of the animal shown. This will be their assigned animal number for the length of the competition for all species.
8. Contestants will not participate in their species, but will receive all points. Since pigeon/dove, pygmy goat, dairy cattle, dog and horses will not be shown, those participants will draw for a species to sit out. Substitution or combination of classes may occur at the superintendent's discretion due to the availability of animals. If there is still an insufficient number of animals, it is at the Superintendent's discretion to remove that species from the rotation, at which point the champion exhibitors of the removed species will have to draw a species to sit out for, in the same manner that pigeon/dove, pygmy goat, dairy cattle, dog and horse exhibitors do.

9. There will be a 10-question general knowledge quiz to be used as a tiebreaker. Participants will take the quiz during the round they sit out.
10. Participants are required to follow exhibitor attire rules during the competition.
11. Exhibitors will be watched during Round Robin by the livestock and round robin superintendent(s) and judges to ensure the welfare of the animal they are showing. If the exhibitor is deemed to be too rough or is mistreating ANY animal, they will receive a verbal warning from superintendent at which time the superintendent will tell the exhibitor how to correct their behavior. If the exhibitor still does not follow instructions, the superintendent will dismiss the exhibitor by asking them to leave the show ring/show table and the exhibitor will be given an automatic 0 score for that species. If the exhibitor is dismissed in 2 or more species, they will be disqualified and removed from the Round Robin Competition entirely.
12. Round Robin Point System – There are 420 points possible per species. Each placing in a class has a corresponding point value and will be added between the judges to come up with the exhibitors score for that species. For example, if an exhibitor was awarded 1st Place by Judge #1, 5th Place by Judge #2, and 2nd Place by Judge #3, the exhibitor would be awarded 370 points for that species. An exhibitor will only be awarded the full possible points if they are placed first by every judge or if they went in (sat out and completed test) for that species. There are a possible 15 exhibitors per age group.

Placing Point Value:

1 st Place = 140 Points	6 th Place = 90 Points	11 th Place = 40 Points
2 nd Place = 130 Points	7 th Place = 80 Points	12 th Place = 30 Points
3 rd Place = 120 Points	8 th Place = 70 Points	13 th Place = 20 Points
4 th Place = 110 Points	9 th Place = 60 Points	14 th Place = 10 Points
5 th Place = 100 Points	10 th Place = 50 Points	15 th Place = 0 Points

13. Awards will be presented during the Awards Ceremony.
